Digging Deeper:

Read Hebrews 9:11-28.

1. In what ways does Jesus’s willingness to shed His own blood defy our culture’s understanding of forgiveness and love?
2. Why was it necessary for Jesus to be born as a human and die for our sins? What does this necessity teach you about the costliness of your salvation? What does it teach you about God’s love for you?
3. In what ways might you have underplayed the seriousness of your sin or the seriousness of God’s holiness?

4. In what ways have you sought to alleviate a guilty conscience? How are you encouraged today to find that solution only at the cross?
5. What aspects of your heavenly inheritance in Christ are you most looking forward to? How are some of those blessings present in your life already?
6. How does the blood of Christ free us from the fear of judgment?

Taking it Home:

1. Hebrews 9:14 assures us the blood of Christ cleanses our consciences from acts that lead to death, so that we may serve the living God! Do you accept the fact that, no matter what you may tell yourself, Jesus has cleansed you from all guilt and shame? Or do you let a sense of guilt keep you from serving God with all your heart, mind, soul, and strength?
