Growing understanding

Growing powerful prayer

Growing involvement

Referring to the graph, how “tall” is our missions program? Our desire for FCCO is to be consistently growing in: prayer, understanding of our global workers’ worlds, and involvement.

We are deepening our field partnerships, as with Jonathan and Monica at the training center in Bolivia. How can we participate in the lives and goals of other global workers?

This year we are praying for more people to support, send, go, and partner. Some of the ways we might be involved is by sponsoring a child in Haiti through the Decieres, assisting Alynne in Boston with shipping medical supplies, visiting a global worker in the field, taking a Perspectives class through Frontier Ventures. See Dave Casto for more details (or email dcasto8137@yahoo.com)

We are asking the Lord, “How can we more broadly participate in global outreach?” Please join us!

“CROSS THE STREET, CROSS THE BORDER”

Our missionaries depend on our prayers. Their journey to cross the border and bring the Good News to the world includes us. And our faith grows as we see our mighty God at work. Consider praying regularly for a global worker (below). Please take the opportunity to make a commitment to praying.
