

Who is Like the Lord?

Micah 1:1-7 -- Page 1440

Taking it Home:

1. Do you have any “idols” in your life? What do you need to do to destroy them?

2. Memorize Micah 6:8.

Prayer Concerns:

Micah the prophet.

Micah’s message to God’s people.

Micah’s message to us today.

1. God calls us to _____ in _____ and _____ to Him.
2. Our hope is _____, not in our _____
3. We must _____ our _____
4. We’re to _____ our _____ as _____
5. We’re to _____, _____, and _____ with our God.

“He has told you, O human, what is good. And what does the LORD require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.” [Micah 6:8]

Personal Study/Growth Group Discussion Questions

Getting started:

1. What is your favorite city? Why do you like it?

Digging deeper:

Read Micah 1:1-7

1. Rather than begin with some niceties, Micah shocks the reader with his words. Why do you think he is so direct and brutally honest from the start?

2. As a Growth Group, you may want to view the Micah summary video Dan showed Sunday: https://bibleproject.com/explore/video/micah/?utm_source=web_social_share&medium=shared_video. After watching it (or after looking at the handout provided in the bulletin), discuss the themes and messages in the book.

3. Micah sounded the alarm that, unless they repented, God was coming from heaven to judge His people for their rebellion and unfaithfulness toward Him. What lessons does this teach us about our need to be loyal and obedient to God?

4. How does loyalty to idols lead to bondage in our lives? How does loyalty to God lead to freedom and blessings in our lives?

5. Which of the five reasons we need Micah's message today resonates with you?

6. Read Micah 6:8. What does it mean to act justly, love mercy, and to walk humbly with our God?
