reminder about email...

We've received another round of scam emails impersonating Pastor Dan and other FCCO staff. Please remember that we will never individually ask you for money, gift cards, secret favors, or other unusual requests. Official church communications will always come from an @firstossipee.net email address, and requests for tithes or offerings will always direct you to our official giving platforms or the offering boxes in the sanctuary. We have not been hacked, and your information is secure—these scammers are simply using fake email addresses to impersonate our staff. If you receive a suspicious email, forward it to jenn@firstossipee.net, and we'll be happy to help determine whether it's legitimate.
